

It's about time the rights of the individuals were recognized over the corporations. Telephone solicitation is an annoying invasion of privacy. Particularly now that these companies do not even have to have live people to hang up on -- tape messages now interrupt dinner, Sunday morning breakfast, and family time in general. Being able to stop these calls should be my right. Please strengthen the federal DO NOT CALL laws. Do NOT weaken the laws in States like New Jersey where they are actually working...